Announcements

Verse: For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. – Galatians 6:8-9.

СѢДМЪ: ꙗкоу сѣаи въ плоть свою, ѿ плоти пожнетъ истребленіе: а сѣаи въ дѣхъ, ѿ дѣха пожнетъ животъ вѣчный. Добро же творѣши, да не стѣжѣемъ си: ко время ко своею пожнемъ не ослабѣюще. – Въ Галатѣмъ, глѣ 6, стѣ 8, 9.

Стихъ: Сѣющій въ плоть свою отъ плоти пожнетъ тлѣніе, а сѣющій въ духъ отъ духа пожнетъ жизнь вѣчную. Дѣлая добро, да не унываемъ, ибо въ свое время пожнемъ, если не ослабѣемъ. – Къ Галатамъ, 6:8-9.

Our Parish

Thanksgiving Food Drive: With the Saint Nicholas Church School, we are conducting a Food Drive for Thanksgiving again this year. We will ask the children of our Church School to bring in food every week. We ask all parishioners to send a few canned goods and toiletry items (toilet paper, soap, toothpaste, etc.) each Sunday with their children. Every little bit helps, and whatever our means, let us at least bring a small donation. Those who do may be comforted by the words of our Saviour, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat (Matthew 25:34-35).

Did You Know?

Why Two Calendar Dates? The reader of this Bulletin may have noticed that we list two parallel dates in our schedule, and sometimes in the Announcements. This is because the Russian Orthodox Church follows a different calendar than does the secular world. In other words, our Church follows the Julian Calendar while the business, social and governmental world around us follows the Gregorian Calendar. What is the difference between the two? They are both the same calendar except for the rule for leap years. The Julian Calendar has a leap year (with a 29th day in February) without exception, while the Gregorian Calendar omits the Leap Year day in century years (years divisible by 100), unless it is divisible by 400. The difference between the calendars accrues at the rate of three days in 400 years. In this century the accumulated difference is 13 days – the Gregorian Calendar is 13 days ahead of the Julian.

It is therefore not quite accurate to say, for instance, that we celebrate the Birth of Christ on the 7th of January. In fact, our Christmas is the 25th of December of the Julian Calendar. We could say that the rest of the world celebrates Christmas on the 12th of December of our calendar.

The Gregorian Calendar was introduced in 1582 by Pope Gregory XIII to bring the Roman ecclesiastical calendar in step with astronomical events. Therefore, while making his calendar more accurate astronomically, Pope Gregory broke the hard-fought 12-century unity of the Christian festal calendar achieved by the First Ecumenical Council in Nicaea, and observed until then by all Christians throughout the world. The New (Gregorian) calendar was gradually introduced piecemeal throughout Europe over the next few centuries, and with great contention. The last holdouts were the Orthodox countries in the east. In fact the introduction of the Papal calendar was the subject of three pan-Orthodox councils in the 1580s, which forbade any tampering with the calendar of the Orthodox Church.

At last, in 1924, despite the ban, and without the consent of the entire Orthodox Church, the Churches of Greece and Constantinople introduced a partial calendar change – the New Calendar for the fixed holy days (such as the Saints' days and Christmas), but kept the Old Calendar for Pascha and its dependent holy days. The calendar change brought nothing but contention and division in the Orthodox Church, as well as the breaking of the festal unity of the Body of Christ. In process of time, a number of Autocephalous Orthodox Churches adopted the New Calendar: Romania in 1924, Alexandria in 1928, Bulgaria in 1968, and others. To this day the Churches of Jerusalem, Russia, Georgia, Serbia, Sinai and Mount Athos retain the traditional Orthodox (Julian) Calendar. Thus a majority of Orthodox Christians throughout the world observe the Old Calendar, although in North America only a minority of Orthodox Christians are on the Old Calendar.

The calendar change was introduced as part of a program to make the Orthodox Church like the western churches, and ultimately to join an ecumenist union of churches without regard to doctrine, truth and history. The introduction of the New Calendar into the Orthodox Church has brought about contention, division and schism. As our Lord said, by their fruits ye shall know them. It is the position of the Russian Church that the calendar change is a poisoned fruit of a poisoned tree, and so maintains the traditional Orthodox Calendar.

Our Bulletin and Schedule of Services reflects the difference between the calendars, and lists the Civil (Gregorian or New) Calendar date alongside the Ecclesiastical (Julian or Old) Calendar date.

Announcements – October 2016

Although some find the difference perplexing, it may help to think of it this way: It is like the difference between Standard Time and Daylight Time, which differ by one hour. We use the same clock, but set it differently (there are some places which use only Standard Time and refuse to change the clock for the summer). Likewise, we use the same calendar, but set it differently. The secular world sets its calendar 13 days ahead of ours.

As the famous German astronomer Johannes Kepler (himself a Protestant) said in the 17th Century when the Protestant states in Germany were considering adopting the Papal Calendar in favor of astronomical accuracy: “Easter is a festival, not a planet.”

Administrative

Lampada Sponsorship: Offerings may be made to sponsor the lighting of the lampadas at the Divine Liturgy, either in memory of loved ones, or in gratitude for blessings received, or for any other good intention. The sponsorship of the lampadas is $25 for all the lampadas in the church. Register at the Candle Desk if you wish to sponsor the lampadas, in whole or in part, on a Sunday of your choice.

Utilities: Please remember that on the first Sunday of each month there is a special collection for utilities.

Consider the Church in Your Will: Please consider including St Nicholas Church in your will. There are many advantages in making the Church one of your beneficiaries. It is possible to structure the bequest so that there is little loss to the estate. Please contact our Starosta, Dexter Peavy, for more information.

Become a Member: If you attend services but are not a member, would you please consider joining? The cost is not great – $150 per adult, or $300 for families with two adults and any number of children. This amounts to about $12.50 a month per person. We also have an introductory rate for students.

Liturgical Notes

Note: We include this section so that Fr George may help changing the altar cloths and vestments at the appropriate times. This is a lot of work, but goes much more easily with a few helping hands.

Red: Before Vigil on Sunday 25 September the altar cloths and vestments are changed to Red for the Forefeast of Holy Cross. The red cloths are placed over the gold. They remain until the apodosis of the Feast, Tuesday 4 October.

Gold: On Tuesday 4 October the altar cloths and vestments are changed to Gold (when the red is removed, the gold will show beneath).

Blue: Before Vespers on Thursday 13 October, the altar cloths and vestments are changed to Blue for the feast of the Protection of the Mother of God.

Gold: On Friday evening 14 October, the altar cloths and vestments return to Gold for the balance of the month.

Prayer Requests

Reminder: If you need a hospital visit or wish Fr George to visit a sick relative, please call and let us know. Hospitals no longer give out information to non-relatives without express permission, so if you want the priest to know yours or your loved one’s condition you must inform the hospital or nursing home in writing.

Pray for our Soldiers: Although we do not have any parishioners of St Nicholas Church on active duty now, our parishioner, Vera Peebles asks prayers for her granddaughter’s husband, John. There are also many Orthodox Christians in the Armed Forces and serving in the War. Please keep them and all our soldiers in your prayers.

Asking Prayers: Please remember the following names in your prayers:

Ailing Clergy: Archbishop Paul (Pavlos) of Astoria (Greek Old-Calendar), Archbishop Nikon (OCA), Mitered Archpriest Andrei Semyanko, and Mitered Archpriest Stavros Rousos.

Prayers are also asked for child Taras.

Ailing Non-Orthodox: Veronica Wlodarski, the daughter of Elizabeth Wlodarski, and Sophia Salinger, the daughter of Tatiana Sergievsky.

Is Anyone Better? If you have submitted any names for the list of prayers for the sick and that person has recovered, please let us know so we can keep the list a manageable length.
